WELCOME

The program includes a 7-night stay (arriving Monday 2nd November and departing Monday 9th November 2020) starting on the sunrise coast and will finish in beauty on the sunset coast. The trip comprises 4 official rounds of golf on 4 spectacular golf courses in Mauritius, namely Ile aux Cerfs, Tamarina, Avalon and Anahita.

This year, three international chefs will be participating in this great adventure.

The trip is a wonderful chance to travel to such a beautiful island destination to play some outstanding golf with like minded people, enjoy the friendly rivalry of competition golf, share some wonderful local cuisine and stay in luxury while you are there.

1.	Avalon Golf Estate   09:30 AM tee time TBC (18 holes of golf with shared golf cart) Avalon is an open, rolling layout designed by Peter Matkovich that is surrounded on all sides by breath-taking views. To the south is the ocean, where early starters can catch the rising sun as they start their game. A peek in the opposite direction provides a view of the majestic mountains that surround Grand Bassin ? the largest natural lake in Mauritius, which was created by a now-extinct volcano. The elevated nature of the course means that low clouds and cooler, breezy conditions are often to be expected. This was incorporated into the course?s design, with Matkovich creating a perfect balance of holes playing both with and against prevailing winds. Very few trees line the course, adding to its feeling of openness and playability, while numerous Tree ferns supplement the local flora and add a soft theme to the unique layout. The course has a natural flow around the estate with numerous changes in elevation, combined with the breezy conditions, making club selection an important part of the experience at Avalon.
