Day 6

- Check out of accommodation. Transfer to golf.
- Tralee Golf Club (Tee time tbc: 18 holes golf with pull buggy)

 Opened in October 1984, Tralee Golf Course was the first European golf course designed by Arnold Palmer. When he first saw the area upon which his company was to build Tralee golf links, he was ecstatic about the possibilities. "I have never come across a piece of land so ideally suited for the building of a golf course" he said.
- Transfer to Portmarnock after golf. Check in to accommodation.

Portmarnock Hotel and Golf Links

Portmarnock Hotel and Golf Links is a luxurious 4 star hotel combining modern elegance with the grandeur of a 19th century home once owned by members of the Jameson Whiskey dynasty. The hotel's clever design ensures all guest rooms have a view of the seaside, garden or golf course. They are just 15 minutes from Dublin airport, nestled between the picturesque, upmarket seaside villages of Malahide and Howth.

Day 7

- Return transfers included.
- Portmarnock Golf Club (Tee time tbc: 18 holes golf with pull buggy)
 Universally acknowledged as one of the truly great links courses, Portmarnock is situated to the north side of Dublin, about 12 miles from the city centre. Its quality and location have made it a splendid venue for some of the games great events, from the British Amateur Championship of 1949, to the Canada Cup in 1960, quite apart the 1991 Walker Cup and 12 stagings of the revived Irish Open.
