Welcome

There are so many good golf courses in Ireland and Scotland. To visit and play them all would take well over a month.

This 14 day getaway allows the keen golfer to experience some amazing courses in Scotland where you will play St.Andrews, Turnberry, Carnoustie, Kingsbarns, Prestwick and Western Gailes before heading to Ireland where your golf includes Ballybunion, Royal County Down, Waterville, Doonbeg, Portmarnock with plenty more golf on offer....should you be up to it!

The accommodation is first class and hotel changes have been kept to a minimum which will make your trip just that little bit more relaxing.

Combined with luxury transfers to get you to and from each hotel and golf course this holiday will have you shaking your head as to how there is so much good golf in two relatively small countries.

This itinerary is best suited for parties of 4 or more golfers however can be organised on a self drive basis for 2 golfers.
