ITINERARY DAY-BY-DAY

Day 1

🛪 Fly to Honolulu, Oahu

Own Arrangements

Transfer to lunch

Starting with your pick up from the airport to a local restaurant for lunch. After lunch, transfer to hotel

Sheraton Waikiki

Of all Waikiki Beach oceanfront hotels, one towers above the rest... the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel and Resort is a modern monument to traditional Hawaiian hospitality. This Oahu hotel is perfectly located as the gateway to Hawaii's favourite beach playground - Waikiki Beach. It is also well situated to enable you to experience the wealth of golf on the island.

Day 2

🖬 Transfer to golf

Turtle Bay Resort - Palmer Course | 08:00 AM tee time TBC (Tee time TBC | 18 holes of golf with shared motorised carts)

Turtle Bay Resort features two championship golf courses that are among the finest in all of Hawaii. The Arnold Palmer courses has achieved legendary status as select locations for prestigious PGA and LPGA tournaments.

M DIAMOND HEAD LOOKOUT - TEMPLE

After golf, head to the Diamond Head Lookout, with its unique shape and prominent location near the eastern edge of Waikiki, at the edge of Oahu. Diamond Head Crater was formed millions of years ago, caused by a large volcanic steam explosion from underground magma interacting with groundwater. Next to Byodo-In Temple, the temple is a place famous for its recreation of a traditional Buddhist temple in Japan. Adorning its lands are beautiful koi ponds, vast and long-established Japanese architecture, with wildlife all around.

Day 3

Transfer to golf

L. Waialae Country Club | 09:00 AM tee time TBC (Tee time TBC | 18 holes of golf with shared motorised carts)
Home to the SONY Open in Hawaii, Waialae Country Club is nestled in the quiet neighborhood of Waialae-Kahala and its signature hole, the par 3 eighth hole, is bordered along its full 186 yards by the Pacific Ocean. Now a mature, lushly landscaped, and player-friendly championship course, Waialae features wide forgiving fairways lined with stands of coconut, monkey pod and kiawe trees and 83 strategically place bunkers that can be in play for any golfer. The course is cooled by gentle trade winds and features well-tended and manicured Bermuda grass fairways and greens.
